President's Report

Dear Members,

Monday's Meeting

This week will be the Board meeting and there is a lot to do before the end of the Rotary Year. The next Board Meeting will be the last Board meeting for my Rotary Year and it will be a combined meeting with the two Boards in a hand over.

On that note Directors and Leaders are reminded that the Annual Report is required, so start thinking about writing those Reports soon.

We will also start thinking about Changeover and where and when we will have it.

Other Matters

The Market Committee is working through the onboarding of putting our Market online. It has been quite an arduous process, but we are getting to the implementation stage. That means buying the equipment to run the system etc.

David W & Byron have done the hard yards but others have done a lot of work as well including John Bethune's daughter Tayla who has been doing the data inputting of the stallholders.

Easter is coming up which means a four-day weekend for most. Our Market will be operating but on smaller scale as a lot of people will be away.

I would like to wish those that celebrate Easter, Easter greetings and I hope you all have a safe and happy time with your families.

Felicity Smith OAM JP
President 2024-2025

Last Meeting & Notes

Last Meeting (7th April):

Apologies = Vivienne Blennerhassett, John Barnes, Cess Hodges, Arthur Athanasopoulos & Greg Telley.

Make Ups = None.

Leave of Absence = David Park.

Visitors = Colin Jenkins.

This week our guest speakers were Richard Simmons first who gave us the "Member behind the Badge" presentation on his history from being in Rotaract to Rotary and other personal events in his life. Attached are the photos which were presented during his talk.

Rotary Four Way Test

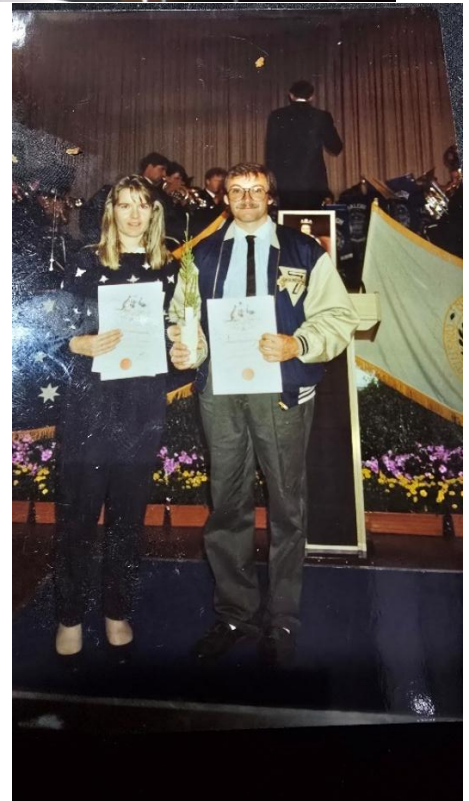

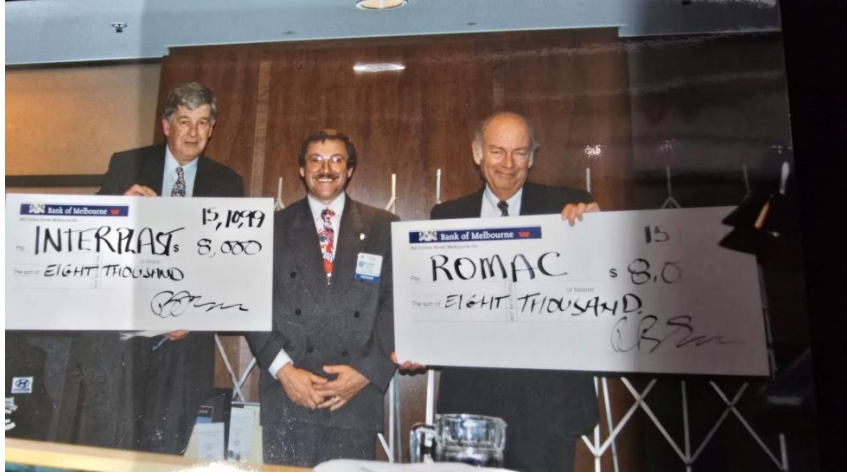

"Of the things we think,
say or do:

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is it Fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?"

The Object of Rotary

1. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
2. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
3. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
4. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Secondly, we then heard from both David Whiting and Byron Kyriakides who gave us an update on the progress of changing the Oakleigh Rotary Sunday Market bookings and handling on line from July 2025. Byron also showed a quick video that shows how the bookings will work on line.

To hear and see the full presentation made by Richard, David & Byron and other General Business from the meeting, refer to the video by clicking on this link.

Club Vision

OCH Rotary is an energetic, fun-loving, forward-thinking Rotary Club that wishes to continue to grow strategically and provide all its members with opportunities to serve while undertaking worthwhile and sustainable projects locally, nationally and globally.

Following are some photos from the night.

Greetings ISLAND

Hi all,

It was a brilliant start to the 2025 season with some wins and some losses and the launch of the Krusher Rodeo.

Fantastic night with everyone kicking up their heels/ boots and both Bulls got plenty of attention throughout the night.

The real Cow drew a crowd on Scammell reserve anticipating Buttercup to do her business on our turf, the mechanical bull was busy all night with everyone queuing up to test their skills. Great night and a perfect way to start the season.

Many thanks to Emily Heverin, Tayla, Bonny, Liam and Craig Robinson for making the night happen but also a big success.

This week's games

Oakleigh Seniors-Oakleigh Vs Brunswick @ Brunswick Gillian Oval 2pm start

Oakleigh Reserves-Oakleigh Vs Brunswick @ Brunswick Gillian Oval 11-40am start

Oakleigh Senior women's -Oakleigh Vs Glen Eira @ Scammell reserve 11-30am start

Oakleigh Reserve women's- Oakleigh Vs Old Xaverians @ Scammell reserve 9-20am start

3rds team-Oakleigh Vs Hawthorn @ Rathmines Road, Reserve 9-20am start

Development Squad- Oakleigh Vs Old Camberwell @ Old Camberwell Gordon Barnard reserve

Good luck to all teams.

Breast Cancer Awareness Luncheon

Ladies, our annual BCNA luncheon is locked in for Saturday the 10th of May so start getting your tables ready and book through Tayla Bethune.

We are expecting 90 to 100 people again and it should be a brilliant day.

A flyer will be sent out shortly but put in your calendars now!

Thursday night meals

Tonight's meal is served up by Raq Luntz and Katsu Curry is on the menu.

Thanks for your help Raq!

Player Individual Sponsors

Player sponsorship has been gathering momentum with a 3rd of players now with sponsors, FYI all players are expected to get a sponsor!

If you are in position to help sponsor a player please reach out and support the player / club.

Rotary Club of Casey “Rize Up Event Update” - Looking for Other Clubs to be Involved

Hi All,

Please see below for website link to explain the work of Rize Up.

<https://www.rizeup.com.au/>

We are planning to run a gala event on Saturday October 18 at Bunjil Place, Narre Warren. Please see below for link to Bunjil Place for your information.

<https://www.bunjilplace.com.au/>

Rize Up have a Victorian sponsor and are sending someone to Victoria for the event. They have an incredible program running in Queensland so we hope this can be extended to Victoria.

We are now looking for other clubs in our community to assist us.

Would you please let me know if you are interested in this inaugural event. We intend to run this again so are hoping for a big start.

Hope to hear from you,

Kind Regards,

Jean Harrison
Secretary 2024/2025

Volunteer Youth Forms

“All members - following up on working with children checks – it is imperative that all members who may come in contact – even incidental - with children (those under 18) have a working with children’s card (WWC) – most members have one but for those that do not could you apply for one ASAP and advise Michael once its received. It costs nothing to apply for a card as a volunteer – you can apply using this link [Working with Children Check \(service.vic.gov.au\)](http://Working with Children Check (service.vic.gov.au))”

Now for the additional requirement of a Form 3 – as explained by the District Youth Chair – Ken Mirams – this is an additional requirement imposed by both the Victorian Government, Rotary International and for insurance purposes. The Form 3 is an extra check particularly for those situations where you may at any time be in a one-on-one situation with a child (anyone under 18), in those cases you must have both the WWC card and a completed Form 3.

Trust that this clarifies – incidental contact with children (not one on one) a WWC check is sufficient – in situations where you will or may be one on one then a Form 3 must be completed. Of course, logistically it makes planning a lot easier if we all have both the WWC card and a Form 3”

Upon completion, please send the form to me.

Joke of the Week

One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head.

She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, 'Why are some of your hairs white, Mum?'

Her mother replied, 'Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white.'

The little girl thought about this revelation for a while and then said, 'Mummy, how come ALL of grandma's hairs are white?'

Waste not

By Carolyn Beans

The real reasons we still trash so much food and what it will take to change

It happens every year. Apple cider appears at the grocery store and I immediately start planning. My family will carve pumpkins and host outdoor movie nights and sit by firepits. For all these activities, we'll need warm apple cider, and lots of it. I buy a gallon. On my next trip, I buy another. I can't be caught short during cider season. But inevitably, we tire of apple cider, and the remainder turns vinegary in the back of the refrigerator before I pour it down the drain.

No one feels good about wasted food. But once tossed, it's all too easy to forget. All the while, rejected food piles up in landfills. In the U.S., nearly a quarter of the solid waste inside those huge mounds is food, mingled with discarded furniture, packaging, electronics, and clothing. As it rots, food releases methane, the supervillain of greenhouse gases that, while shorter-lived than carbon dioxide, is far better at trapping heat during its 10 or so years in the atmosphere. That's why reducing food waste throughout the supply-to-consumption chain is recognized by nonprofit Project Drawdown as one of the single most effective ways we could slow our planet's heating.

For Rotary members and others who work to rescue food before it ends up in the trash can or down the drain, other motivators are cost savings and the desire to waste less when so many people go without enough to eat. That drive has taken on new urgency in recent years with inflation ballooning grocery bills in much of the world, to the point that some people can't afford enough nutritious necessities. Reducing food waste is one concrete action we can take as individuals at home to contribute to solutions for this unwieldy world problem. Then, collectively,

Rotary members and others band together to recover uneaten food at club meetings, in schools and other community institutions, and beyond to multiply the results.

The potential impact is huge: A third of food that's sold in the U.S. goes to waste, and about half of all wasted food comes from our homes, with the rest from restaurants, factories, farms, and other sources. For years, I've been on my own mission to reduce my family's food waste. I've made real progress — I don't remember the last time I threw away an overripe banana. And yet, I still make missteps that leave me staring into the garbage bin and thinking, "How did I do this again?"

In search of answers, I asked food waste experts and Rotary members who lead on this issue for their take on the real reasons so many of us still throw away food — and what it will take to break the habit. "The food waste issue is so glaring in this country," says Joe Richardson, a member of the Rotary Club of Southern Frederick County (Urbana), Maryland. "It's no longer OK not to act."
